Celebrating the Professional Legal academic career of Professor Clement H. Ng'ong'ola

On 31 December 2020, Professor C.H Ngongola retired from the Department of Law, University of Botswana, after serving the University for 36 years in different capacities in teaching, research and leadership. During this period, he contributed immensely to the growth and development of the legal profession in Botswana and in Africa at large.

Prof Ng'ong'ola's research interests were on the 21st Century Legal Developments in Botswana and Southern Africa. We therefore invite abstracts with respect to the following areas:

- Regional integration in Africa;
- International economic relations;
- Land issues;
- Management of elections;
- Labour issues;
- Environmental issues;
- Minority rights;
- Commercial law;
- Notable constitutional developments;

This special issue of the journal is dedicated to celebrate the career of Prof Ng'ong'ola.
